FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 4, 2022

The Skaneateles Police Department is pleased to announce that they will be participating in the national Faith and Blue campaign within the Skaneateles community. Faith and Blue was founded to help build stronger police-community relations through faith based organizations. The police department will be present to meet the congregants after services for the next three weekends.

The Skaneateles Police Department and the participating churches would like to extend a warm welcome to anyone who can attend on one of the following dates.
